

'-ING' OR '-ED' ADJECTIVES

Read the speech bubbles and fill in the blanks with -ed or -ing forms of the adjectives below

surprised-surprising

bored-boring

relaxed-relaxing

excited-exciting

tired-tiring

frightened-frightening

shocked-shocking

confused-confusing

interested-interesting

pleased-pleasing

embarrassed-embarrassing

We were all frightened when we saw a lion coming towards us.

I think this magazine about nature looks quite interesting. Can I have a look at it?

Anny and Fanny felt bored so they decided to go to the cinema.

When Helen saw a lovely puppy in her birthday present box she felt very surprised.

In my opinion,spa holiday is the most relaxing holiday of all.You can get red of all your stress

Working on a farm is more tiring than working in an office.You need to be strong to do it.

The accident we had was quite shocking. Three people were seriously injured.

Welcome to our school Mandy. We are all pleased to meet you.

"Frankenstein" is the most frightening film I have ever watched.

I felt quite embarrassed when I fell down in front of whole class.

Two men were looked really relaxed after a 15 minute sauna massage.

After three hours of shopping we were extremely tired.

This jigsaw puzzle is too confusing for me.It has got 4000 pieces.

I like adventure so I find white water rafting very exciting.