

Worksheet - Finding and Underlining Prepositional Phrases
English 100 Grammar Workshop

1. My uncle lives in Philadelphia and works at the post office.
 2. No one in the chorus has learned the word of the songs.
 3. Many of the books at the library are over one hundred years old.
 4. Several students in the class were sleeping when the professor came into the room.
 5. Most of the peaches on our trees are ripe.
 6. Julie went to the beach last summer and met a terrific boy on the Boardwalk.
-
7. Jan and Robert are marrying in the little chapel behind St. John's Cathedral.
 8. A pot of steaming water was ready for the veterinarian.
 9. He delivered the ten puppies by Caesarean Section as the mother lay under anesthesia.
 10. Many people in the tiny mountain towns were killed as the monsoon passed over their island.
 11. None of the groom's cake was eaten at the reception.
 12. A tabby cat was lying on the windowsill with her paws curled beneath her.

Worksheet – Recognizing Prepositional Phrases
Developmental English

Please place parentheses around each prepositional phrase in the following sentences. Remember that the phrase includes the preposition and the noun that is its object.

1. We went to the desk clerk and asked about a room.
 2. A package lay on the porch, so we took it into the house.
 3. Some of the cake is in the fridge.
 4. The children ran around the tree playing freeze-tag.
 5. Most of them were laughing.
 6. How many of you came to Greenville Tech immediately after high school?
 7. The box at the bottom of the stairs should go to the basement.
 8. We drove over the river and through the woods to Grandmother's house.
 9. How many of you know all of the parts of speech?
-
10. Several books of poems are on the shelf in the hall.
 11. The primary job at hand is to fix this broken water pipe.
 12. It supplies water to the kitchen, and we have twenty guests coming for dinner.
 13. Most of the children are ready with their coats and mittens.
 14. Most students who are returning to college after several years away from school are a bit nervous.
 15. A friend of mine lived on Hilton Head Island for ten years, and I visited her often for 'girls' weekends.
 16. A tile from the roof fell and hit her on the shoulder, knocking her to the ground.